How long have you been an owner in C.C.C.? _____

Association committees are made up of member volunteers. Compensation is not provided. We appreciate your time and dedication to the community by volunteering your priceless time. Depending upon the committee you may be joining, some committees meet from time to time to address certain areas of their concern, while others may only meet on an as needed basis. Please explain how much time you are able to contribute below.

What knowledge, experience, training or interest do you have to contribute to this committee?

As a committee member you represent the Cobblestone Country Club with direct supervision of the Cobblestone Country Club Board of Directors. Committees are to work together and report back to the Committee Liaison and Board of Directors, obtain Board approval before spending association funds for projects and abide by Governing Documents pertaining to committees, including association and State Statute.
